RULES AND REGULATIONS

Competitions will be run under Equestrian Australia Rules and FEI Rules as laid out in the competition schedule, unless superseded by the rules in the respective sections below.

DRESSAGE:

Competition Rules:

Tests will be judged in sections if numbers demand (above 30 riders). All sections of these classes will be judged in the same arena with the same or different judges. Competition will be divided into relative sections for awarding prizes.

Sharing of horses is NOT allowed for any tests.

Where horse tack is concerned, martingales, bandages, boots, blinkers, tongue straps and bearing, side or running reins are NOT permitted.

Competitors must wear a helmet with a 3 or 4 point harness correctly fastened at all times when mounted (exception only for FEI Tests at PSG and above when a top hat may be worn warming up immediately prior to the competition).

Jackets are optional in all dressage classes. If riding without a jacket, a white long/short-sleeved shirt must be worn.

Riders may carry a whip in all dressage classes, except when participating in the National Dressage Championships, FEI World Dressage Challenge, and Selection Trials. Whips are to be a maximum of 1.0m for ponies and 1.2m for horses.

Warm-ups of Inter-Club Competitions: Horses may only be ridden by its registered competitors on the day of competition.

Warm-ups of Championships: Horses may only be ridden by its registered competitors starting from 24 hours before the commencement of the first class of the Championship.

SHOWJUMPING:

Competition Rules:

Jackets are optional in all jumping classes. If riding without a jacket, a suitable long/short-sleeved shirt with a white collar must be worn.

Body protectors are permitted in all classes, but care must be taken with respect to potential heat exhaustion.

For classes under 100cm, Table A of Article 236 (FEI Jumping Rules, 25th Edition) will be modified as follows:

First disobedience	Four faults
Second disobedience	Four faults
Third disobedience	Elimination

Order will be drawn for first round (Not against the clock). In the event of equality of faults, riders will go in the same order for the jump off.

For other classes, rules may be posted for the Show prior to the start of the respective class.

All instructions from stewards and officials are to be followed without dispute or delay; otherwise the competitor is liable to disqualification.

Course Design & Walk:

Course design will be made available on STCRC Notice Board prior to the start of the first class. Course walk will take place immediately after the completion of the course building for each class. Riders will be notified via the Public Address (PA) system.

Riders must be properly attired during the course walk. Riders may be fined at the judges' discretion should they be improperly attired.

Prize-Giving Ceremony: Prize giving ceremony will be held near the Reception Counter area at allotted timeslots. Competitors not attending the prize giving without notifying the organizers in advance may be asked to forfeit their placing and prizes.

Prizes and Placings: One placing/prize awarded for 5 or fewer competitors;
Up to four placings/prizes awarded for 6 to 19 competitors;
Up to six placings/prizes awarded for 20 or more competitors.
For dressage classes with 1 rider starting, prize money will only be awarded for 65% score and above.
For showjumping classes with 1 rider starting, prize money will only be awarded for 5 faults and below.

Appeals: Appeals against any judging decisions, placing or events impacting the results or any class must be lodged with the Show Director in writing within 30 minutes of the official announcement of the result. All appeals must be accompanied by a deposit of $50 which will be returned in the event the appeal is upheld.

The appeal committee will review all appeals and announce its decisions as soon as possible pending the time taken to gather and review evidence. The decision of the appeals committee is final.

Dressage Test Sheets: Test sheets are available for reference at STCRC Reception Counter. Alternatively, they may be downloaded from EFA website at <http://www.efanational.com> and FEI website at <http://www.fei.org/Pages/Default.aspx>.
